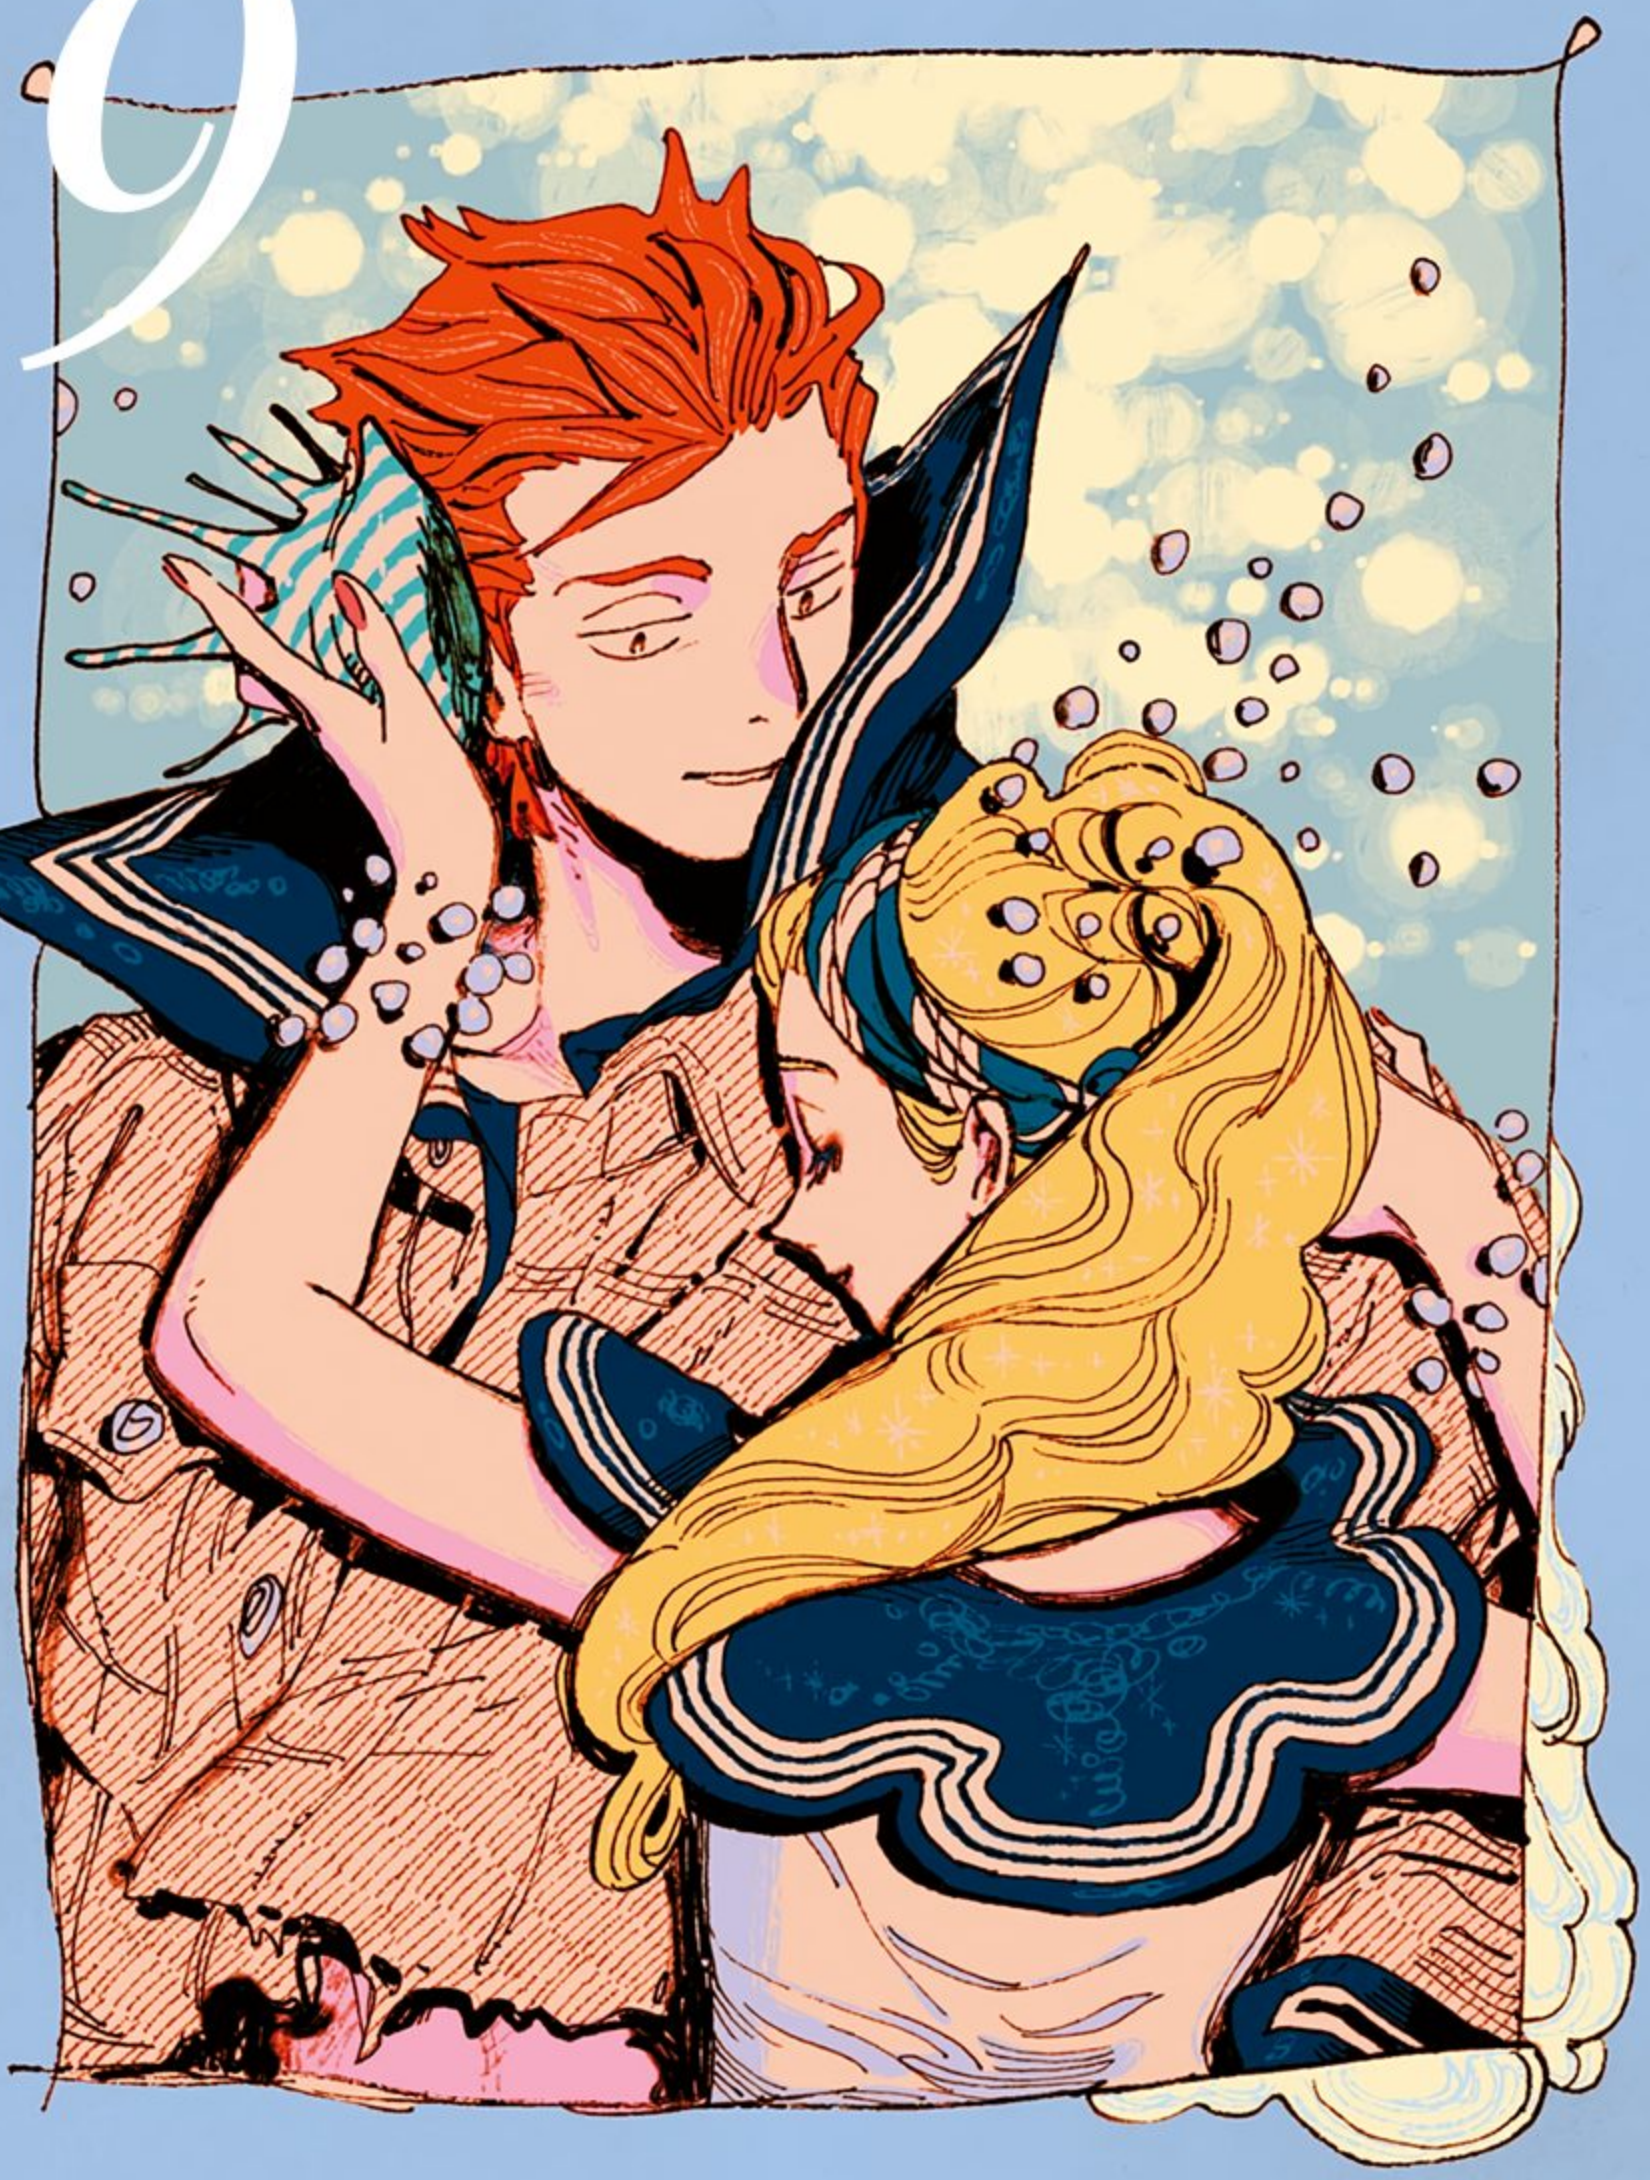
SCENE 69



The Sound of the Sea Kept

HUSH ZZSH ZSSSH SPLOSH
SPLOSH
What a jarring shape...
Now there's a pretty seashell.

ZZSH...

ZSSH
ZWSH

I think you're supposed to hear some-thing.

Watch the spines...

How's it done again...? If you put the shell to your ear...

ZWSH

Oh my... Whatever's the matter?

Ho-hoh!

...Yes?

This is Sasha.

ZSSSSH

And the waves nip at your feet like little cats and dogs.

There's always music on, played by the sea...

ZNSH

What I mean is... it's very soothing.

Why, you should stop by the ocean, then.

Ever the worker you are.

CLICK

I say not to write it off so quickly.

Well, have a lovely day now. Adieu.

Would you take five-or-so more steps to the left?

Z S S H

Z S H

Very quiet... I suppose no one's home.

Hello?

F S S H

Right...

Now that we've come all this way out to the beach...

...won't you share your thoughts with me...?

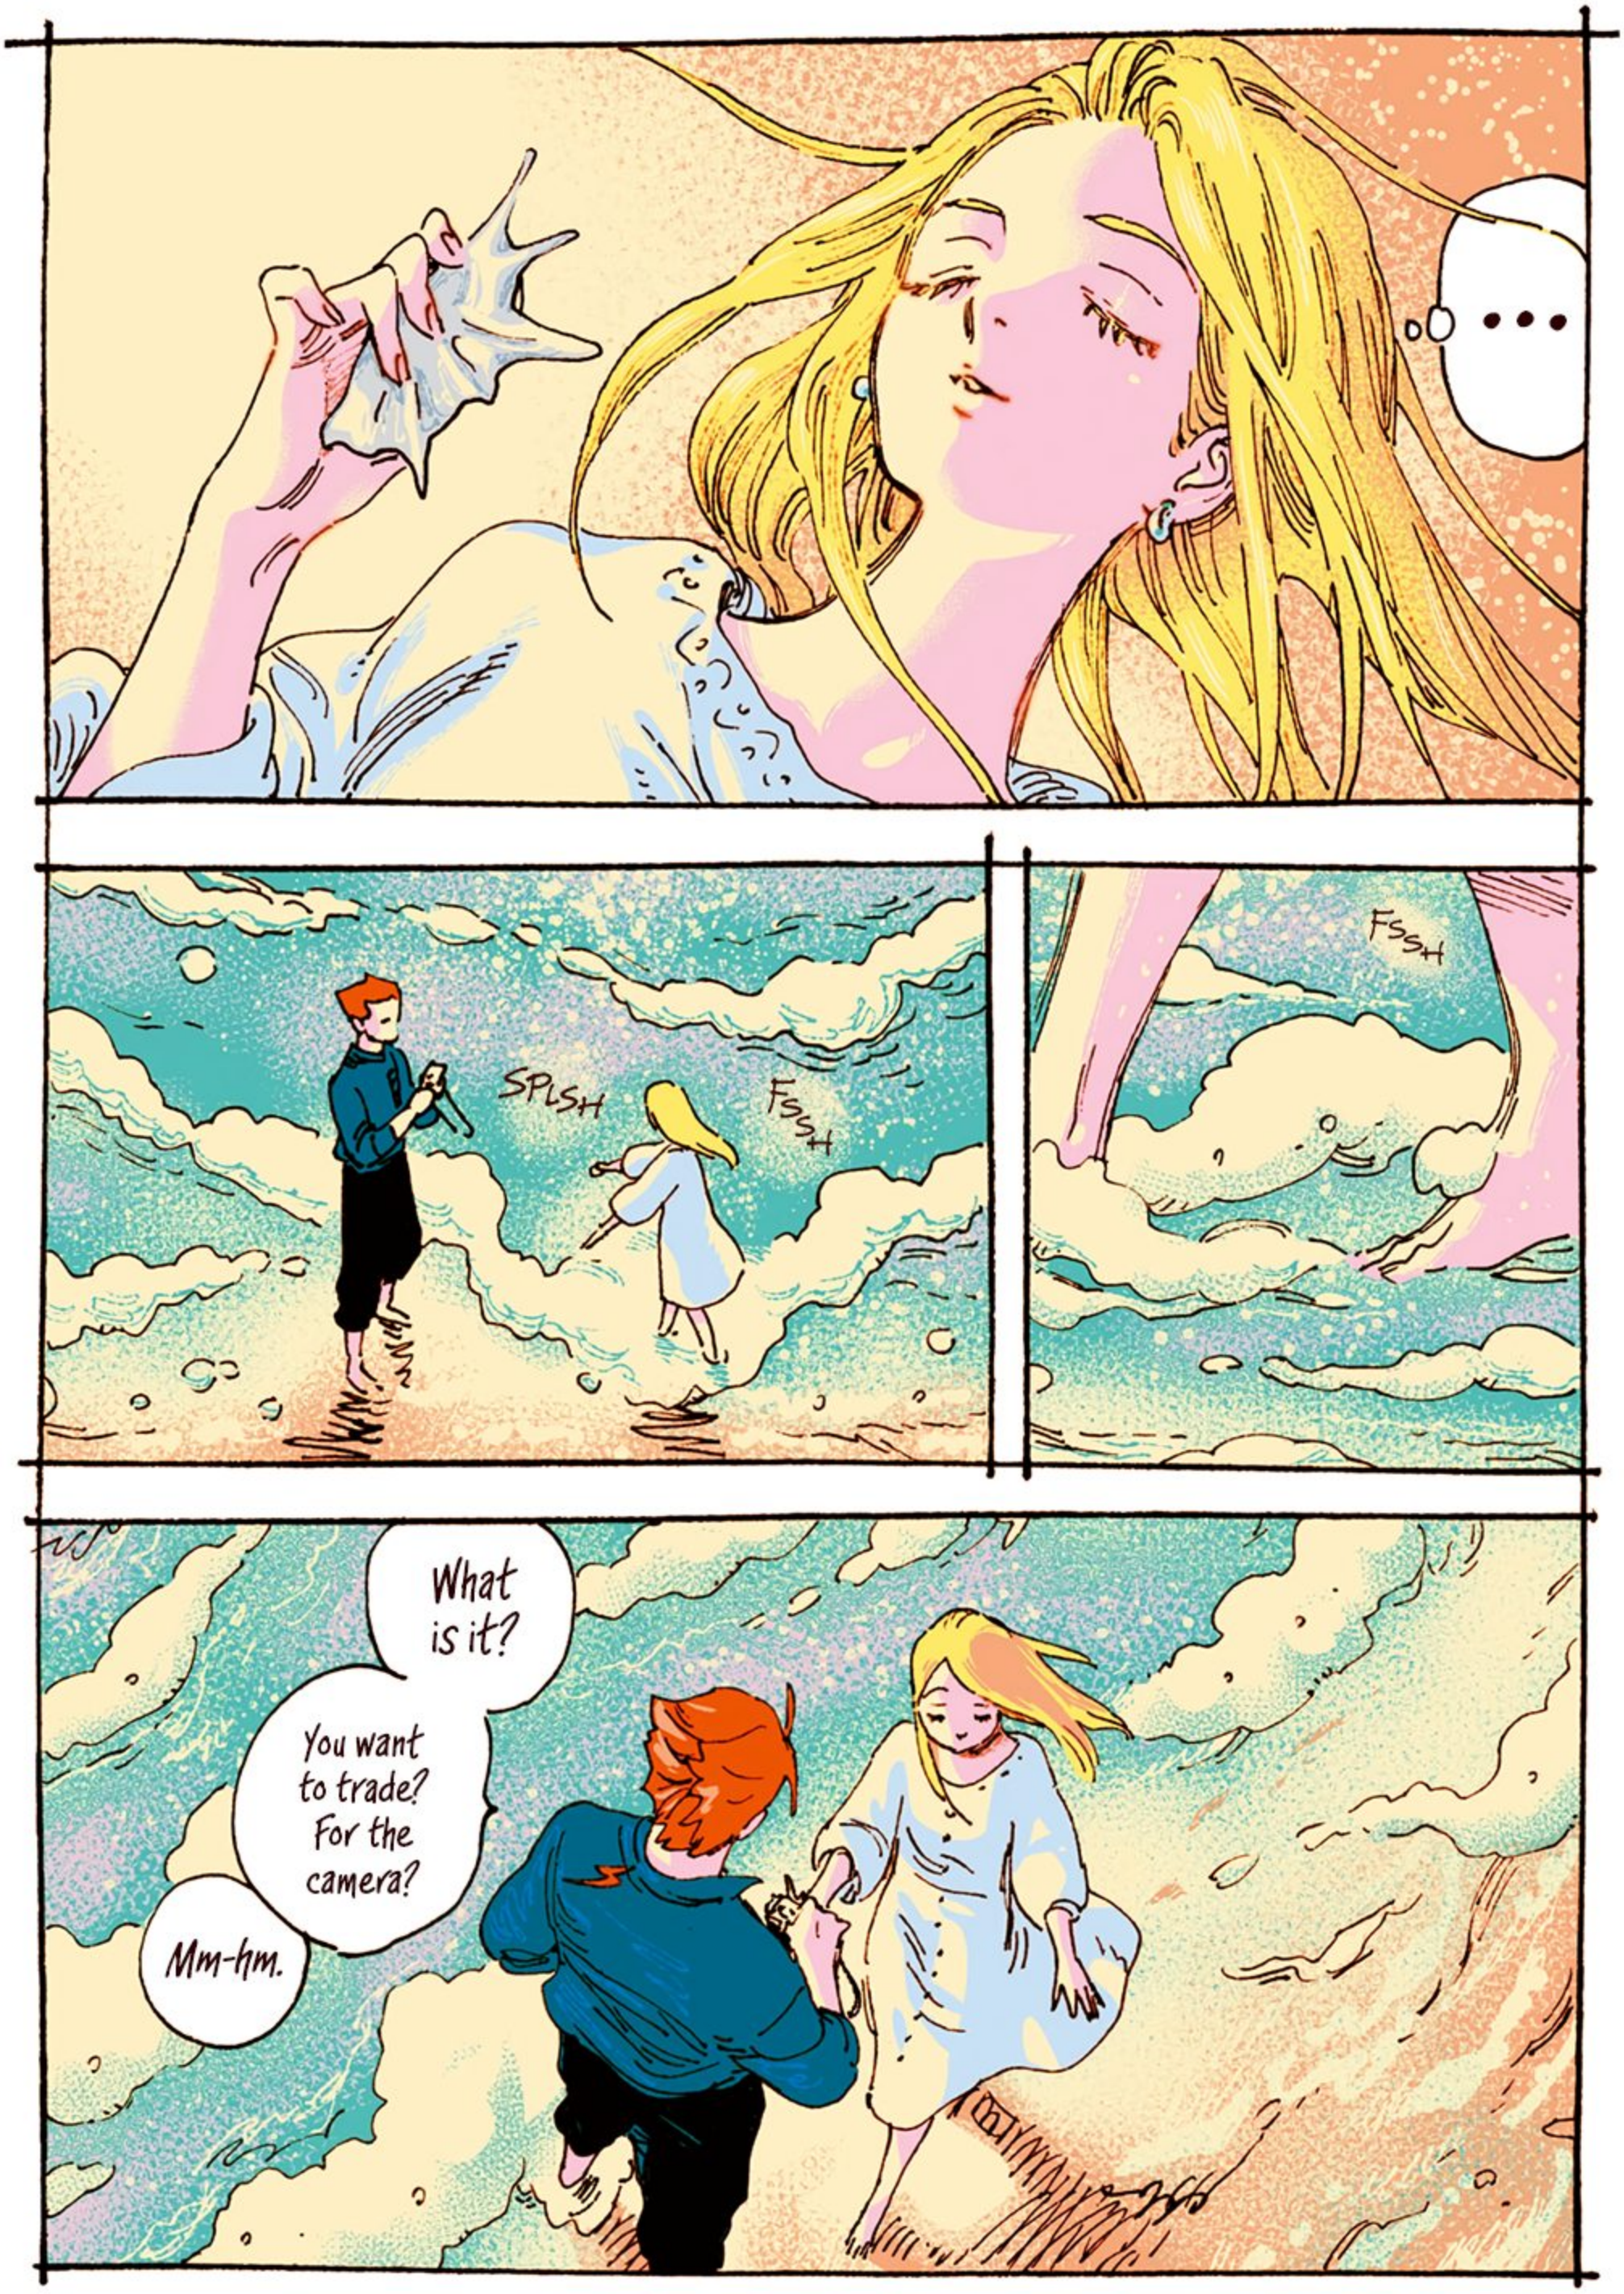
Let me get a good long look first.

...Well,

I have to wonder why it took us so long to come here.

KLIK

ZSSSSH



...
SPLSH FSSH
FSSH
What is it?
You want to trade? For the camera?
Mm-hm.

Hey, ocean's at 3 o'clock.

Oh, no, left...

It's fine. I've got it where I want.

FSSSH

FSSSH

FSSSH

You've this infatuation with the sea...

It took us so long to visit here...

...because you've been unknowingly saving it...

...for a special occasion.

CLICK

No way! I wasn't ready. I bet I look funny.

On the wall next to the bed...

I'll be hanging that up in my room.
